One hundred and seventy-five men are at work on the Port Huron and Lexington railroad.

Repairs to the extent of $80 have lately been put upon the St. Clair county poor house.

Rev. F. J. Estabrook, late pastor of the Congregational church at Almont has gone to Charlevoix.

Will McConnell, of near Richmond, was struck by a large hickory tree in falling, which nearly ended his life.

Thieves broke into Fairfield & Heath's elevator at Richmond and found 50 cents in the money drawer.

A business man of Marlette has had his assessment raised because his advertisement in the Leader occupied as much or more space as some other merchants. An odd reason.

Of 15 young men and young ladies who took the civil service examination for positions in the postal service, 11 failed to spell the word "admissible" correctly. An "a" was used instead of an "i".

Zimri Mitchell, of Smith Creek was struck by a fast freight last week and thrown from his buggy, receiving injuries which will probably cause his death. His horse was instantly killed and buggy demolished.

The "green goods" scandal in Marlette has been aired again by the Detroit Sunday Sun, and the Marlette Leader has set forth in last week's issue some facts in connection with the matter. The Sun implicates most or all of Marlette's business men, which is a gross injustice.

D. WEAVER, Melvin Mich.

TESTIMONIALS:

Yale, Mich., May 25, 1895.

Gentlemen:
Your Milwaukee binder, I bought in 1893, is one of the easiest handled and lightest draft machines I ever saw or used. I cut 60 acres last year with one small team. I would have no other kind. It cut a field of grain that a Deering Machine left.

Yours Truly,
J. A. VINCENT.

Gentlemen:
I purchased a Milwaukee binder and mower last season and am well pleased with them. They are the lightest on horses, easiest to handle and do the best work of any machines I ever owned. Whoever says that I am sorry for purchasing the Milwaukee tells an absolute falsehood.

JERRY JOHNSON,
Brockway, Mich.
